Local Realty Office Takes Part in Community Sponsorship

Realty Executives Southern Arizona in Tucson lends a helping hand

Tucson, AZ (Grassroots Newswire) 03/24/2008 -- Realty Executives Southern Arizona in Tucson is lending a helping hand to the local community by sponsoring the Shred-It and Community Food Bank Event.

"We are so happy to be able to sponsor this very important initiative," said Jennifer Hess of Realty Executives Southern Arizona. "We're grateful be able to make this contribution because we are giving back to all of those in the community that support us with their business."

The event which was held on Saturday, March 15th at the firm's River Center location was organized by one of their Executives, Keith Johnson. The event was a huge success in which over 300 people attended and filled up three Shred-It trucks with documents to shred! The firm thanks the community for participating and raising $1256 in monetary funds and $895 in food items to the Community Food Bank.

Realty Executives is one of the most closely followed real estate franchises in the world. Since its beginning in Phoenix, Arizona more than 35 years ago, the company has become one of the fastest growing franchises in any industry, according to Rich Rector, president and CEO of Realty Executives International. Phenomenal franchise growth and a unique franchise development strategy are creating even more interest in the company.

"Being an integral part of the community is vital to Realty Executives International's commitment to its clients," said Rector. "We are glad that the Southern Arizona office is helping its local community by sponsoring the Shred-It and Community Food Bank Event. They are fulfilling our company-wide mission of giving back to the community."
